IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE OF BOMBAY
CIVIL APPELLATE JURISDICTION

CONTEMPT PETITION NO.142 OF 2006

Azizuddin Kutubuddin Kazi & Ors. ..Petitioners.

V/s.

Sirajali D. Jahagirdar & Ors. ..Respondents.

Mr.N.V.Bandiwadekar for petitioners.

CORAM: A.M.KHANWILKAR,J
DATE : APRIL 18, 2006.

P.C. :

1. Heard.

2. Counsel for the petitioners fairly accepts that respondent Nos. 16 to 22 against whom relief of initiating contempt action is prayed in this petition, were not parties to the proceedings before this court in which order dated 20th February, 2006 in Civil Application No.125 of 2006 came to be passed. He submits that petitioners be given liberty to pursue the remedy against the said respondents for having committed criminal contempt. Those proceedings will have to be heard by the Division Bench in terms of High Court Appellate Side Rules. Accordingly, office to place the matter before the appropriate forum.

3. Liberty to apply.
